

Funding in the homeless sector:

Beyond the cuts

Shelter Scotland's Homelessness Conference 2016
8th March | Trades Hall, Glasgow

Agenda

09:00	Registration Tea & coffee
09:30	Chair's welcome Annie Mauger, Executive Director, Devolved nations, Chartered Institute of Housing
09:40	Introduction to 'Beyond the Cuts' Adam Lang, Head of Communications and Policy, Shelter Scotland
09:50	Minister for Housing and Welfare – Margaret Burgess
10:10	The future role of funders Jackie Killean, Director for Scotland, Big Lottery Fund The role of funders in the changing systems Alice Evans, Director for System Changes, Lankelly Chase Foundation Delegate discussion and response
11:05	UK, Scottish and local government funding for homelessness Statutory funding in the sector: Where we are now and where we need to go Tony Cain, Policy Manager, Association Local Authority Chief Housing Officer Responding and adapting to temporary accommodation funding changes Marion Gibbs, Homelessness Team Leader, Scottish Government Julie Hunter, Housing Strategy Manager, North Lanarkshire Council Solutions: Collaborative working between local authorities and the third sector Ewan Aitken, Chief Executive, Cyrenians, former leader, Edinburgh Council

	Panel discussion
12:15	Lunch Buffet, networking and exhibition
13:00	Costs of homelessness: The big picture Nicholas Pleace, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Housing Policy, University of York
13:30	Workshops * Demonstrating the economic value of your service Karen Hancock, Economist, Pro Bono Economics, former Chief Economist, Department of Education * The impact of funding challenges on homelessness teams Anna Evans, Director, Anna Evans Housing Consultancy * Social Investment: bringing new money to the sector Roger Moors, Chief Development Officer, Social Investment Scotland
14:30	Coffee
15:00	Innovative Income Financial investment for social impact: loans, bonds and more Phil Caroe, Director of Social Finance, Allia Social Enterprise Fraser Kelly, Chief Executive, Social Enterprise Scotland Diversifying income John Hinton, Executive Director, Move On Delegate discussion and response
16:15	Closing remarks from the chair
16:30	End